Kangappa Kangappa (Telugu: కంగప్ప) is the practice of a group of families, usually Brahmin, (as mentioned in ancient texts as kangacapuththa, king of kangas), living on a site and sharing a common host (called Vannam or Vannamathu) and doing domestic duties for the host. A person, who is a member of a kangappa family but does not live with them, is called Kannapa or Kannapathi. A kangappa family is called a kangam. Kangapa and Kannapa Kangapa and Kannapa are the terms of a kind of a social system. The word kangappa (Telugu: కంగప్ప) literally means a royal or noble house. A person, who is a member of the kangapa system and also has a kangappa residence, is called Kannapa. A kangappa village is called a kangam. The kangapa system is connected with the kangasa
