With a clever deck of cards the player builds a town out of wooden beams. Those wooden beams are the blocks! You can use them as you wish. So you can build your house the way you want. The builder starts with just the door and a roof. You can easily develop your house to a city with higher and higher levels. The unique construction mechanics are based on the classic game "Thru", which can be traced back to China. Thru is in the beginning of the 19th century the card game of choice for the young educated elite. According to the rules of the game, each player of the team has to lay out his building card at the bottom of the pile. So it's a game of trickery and duels. How to play costrutto Choose from 4 different settings. Throw the cards in the pre selected pile at the bottom. The first player chooses the card he wants to start with and then performs a special combination of the cards. You have no time to think! Now it's YOUR turn. You have to lay the 3 cards you choose onto the pile of the first player in such a way that they form a building block. You can use several building blocks of your choice to form your house. More than 30 different types of buildings are available in the game. The building blocks are a bit different in every setting. If you make a mistake you still have the opportunity to correct your card. You don't have to watch out for your dice. They just roll themselves. After the first player has made his building blocks, the second player makes his blocks or passes. Conviniently all building blocks will automatically stack. The game lasts 30 seconds but you only have 7 seconds to build. Features costrutto: Language: English Setting: German, American, Italian, Mexican Playfield: Board size: 12x15 Number of players: 2 to 5 Play time: 30 seconds You can get the app on the following sites (Costrutto is available from android devices): ► AppStore: ► PlayStore:

You will get killed by a bug in the next room. BAM. The goal of the game is to get the highest score and survive as long as possible by playing against 3 - 4 pirates on your ship. Each round ends when someone or everyone on the ship dies or the time runs out. It's not necessary to kill your opponents, only survive by the skin of your teeth. But if you're the last man standing, congratulations, you win. If you manage to kill or survive in the allotted time without getting killed, you gain points. Each point you earn increases the multiplier your score will be raised. The multiplier aces are 5, 8, 10 and 15. If you reach a multiplier of 15, the ball that counts your number of points will spin for 60 seconds and all players on the ship will get a 15 bonus point multiplier. Map features: - 5 different maps with different enemies - All maps have health bars that must be hit by your opponents cannons. - All maps have optional 2-player 3-round versions. - Each map has a unique feature that allows the ship to automatically advance the map in a certain direction. Game controls: - Your ship is invisible (you can see the hit bars of other players) - Your ship can be rotated anywhere on the screen. - There are 4 firing lanes in front of the ship that can be used to fire cannons in any direction. - Two cannons in the middle of the ship are always firing on all enemies. - You can press "T" to enter or exit the ship. - You can press "S" to rotate the ship to any left/right/up/down angle. - You can press "F" to stop and fire cannons. - You can drag ship to aim cannons. - You can drag ship to change firing direction. - You can click to lock yourself in the middle of a ship and stop for one round. - You can click to rotate ship 180 degrees (to the right). - You can click to "unlock" your ship. - To fire cannons, click on enemies. To unlock cannons, click on the ship. - You can press "B" to bring up your ship stats. - You can press "N" to bring up a countdown timer. - You can press "T" to bring up game options. Level rewards: - 15 points - 16 - 20 c9d1549cdd

Note: If you do not wish to see my horrible gaming mistakes, skip to the 20 minute mark. This is a compilation of all the episodes with the title Mecha-Mummy: Resurrection. If you missed these releases, stay tuned for Episode 16 and Episode 23! What do you think about this game? Have you played it before? Let us know in the comments below! "Mecha-Mummy Resurrection" was a side-scrolling survival-horror game that featured two protagonists who are captured by a tribe of warrior-mummies and learn that the true secret of those warriors' immortality relies upon a powerful stone known as the Schyzoid Stone. The protagonist who is first captured is rescued by the second protagonist, who returns to the mummy camp. The protagonist who is second captured, however, decides to leave the mummy camp and find the Stone on his own, only to end up as the main character of "Moby & Marge: The Undying". "Mecha-Mummy Resurrection" is very similar to the Ikkyū-Shinyō series of side-scrolling survival-horror games; its gameplay includes exploration, battle, puzzle-solving, and item collecting. "Mecha-Mummy Resurrection" was released exclusively for the Dreamcast and PC-CD in Japan only on March 24, 2001. No ports of the game for any platform were ever released outside of Japan, although the original Dreamcast version was being considered for a possible re-release in some regions of the world for Microsoft Windows, PlayStation 2 and PlayStation Portable. The closest it came to a release outside Japan was in 2002, when it

What's new:

Exclusive to Tierless Players In the ___ days prior to launch, __, __, __, __ and __ signed an exclusivity agreement. Wait, Hold Everything! To qualify for this Founder's Pack, players must not only be Tiers 1-5, but they must have never bought a Founder's Pack before! And — holy crap! — there's something extra on top of that too! So that means we've got this totally decked out Founder's Pack for you at an exclusive price. Let's jump right into the details here, shall we? Here are some of the goodies we've done right the heck out of for these Founder's Pack subscriptions, along with a sneak peek at what the next one will have (although, we have very big swag giving details... which is great!) THE TUTORIALS Career stages are becoming a real thing with MOJO as they're used to cater nicely to a wide range of players. Where you'll see 1, 2, 3, 4 or 5 in your ranks page details what stage you are at in your MOJOSocial profile. Careers are made up of unique skills that are acquired by leveling up those stats and can be used at any other career stages, plus other career skills can be used at any stage to train those skills to be employed by another. Now, you'll find just about every career the Founder's and Basic packs have on offer on one of 4 pages here at the MOJO website here, specifically here. We've added a couple of extra ones that'll be rolling out to the gear to help you make your decisions about the Founder's Pack. We know there will be plenty of players who already know the ropes from MOO, but for those who haven't cared about other careers, these pages will point out the benefits, as well as the point scale/cost of each skill, any time you're leveling up (i.e. if they're required, which they normally are). If you're already trying to decide whether or not to get the Founder's Pack, take a look at what each bonus has to offer, and if it sounds like there are a few things that would catch your eye like the unsold lifetime airline miles it might
