Insert.readLine(Insert.java:25) at Insert.main(Insert.java:23) I get an exception when the line runs the compareTo function. What could be causing the issue? I can get it to work by just removing the line with compareTo("word") A: Based on your function you want to check if "word" occurs in the readLine() You have to do something like this: private String readLine() throws IOException { String read = input.
