½The Feasibility Study for a Coconut Water Treatment System ½. Who would have said a decade ago that Google would have been taken to the woodshed by a left-wing political blogger? Who would have thought that James Woods would become a big name, known by men and women in not just the traditional media, but other parts of the Internet as well? The reason Woods has been stoking the ire of Kaczynski, one of the people most responsible for the modern leftist blogosphere, is because Woods published a number of anti-Kaczynski comments on his own blog, including such statements as: Kaczynski is "a creepy, pale, washed up, spitting image of a Reaganesque revolutionary." Kaczynski was born "in the heart of American activism" and "trained as a journalist to be a propagandist." Kaczynski, "younger brother of Patty Hearst, a convicted robber turned crime novelist, ran with her in the 1970s." Kaczynski, "like all of our [professional activists], becomes a hero at the appropriate juncture, and then continues to further the narrative." Kaczynski "is not a political blogger.
