some of the features of mixmeister fusion include: replaceable audio samples, audio loops and single beat elements stereo and multi-channel effects arpeggio, sample-triggering, glitch and exciter effects integrated synths midi effects time stretch, key-switching and time-stretching effects realtime audio-mixing seamless transitions mixmeister fusion is a complete tool for creating,

remixing and burning dj-quality mixes. mixmeister fusion is designed for real dj's, not the home dj. it comes pre-loaded with over 200 royalty-free loops and grooves and more will be added regularly. you can import your own samples and use them to craft your own grooves. fusion lets you use the software during the process of a mix, and you can apply the changes you make on the fly during a performance. you can use the built-in effects to refine and polish your mixes, or import your own effects. mixmeister fusion is a multi-track dj app, not a sequencer. you don't record and mix your songs like a dj does, instead you edit and manipulate them during the performance. what you record is the actual audio that comes out of your soundcard, not your mixer or a virtual dj mixer. this lets you give dj-like performance without the expense and complexity of a dedicated dj system. with the power of windows, you can quickly and easily access your mac's functions and files.

because fusion is a pc application, you can use it alongside mac software, all with the power of windows.
