A: Alright, now when you get that error it's because the file has the.rar extension, so it needs to be renamed to.zip. I think you can do it by double clicking on the zip file and then selecting "Extract All" from the context menu. A: Your file has a.rar extension (you can do a search for it on your computer). Then when it extracts, you'll have a file called AutoCAD2011xforcekeygen32bits-adds.rar. Move the.rar to a USB drive or your hard drive, and rename it to.zip to open it with 7Zip. You should then have an AutoCAD2011xforcekeygen32bits-adds.zip file. Q: Auto shrinking the height of textarea on focus I have a textarea that I am trying to auto-shrink the height of, based on the content of the textarea. How can I accomplish this? I am attempting the following, but it does not appear to be working. jQuery: if(jQuery.trim(jQuery("textarea").val()).length == 0){ jQuery("textarea").height("0px"); } CSS: textarea { height: 24px; } A: If you want to do this with jQuery, you could do it like this ( assuming you want to shrink the height before the user starts typing, don't show the default empty text area height, and do it all in jquery, as it is the simplest way to get it done: $("textarea").on('blur', function(){ if($(this).val() == ""){ $(this).height(0); }else{ $(this).height($(this).height()+24); } }); Fiddle Demo Q: Validity of use of dehumidifier if heating/cooling is occurring? Is it legal to use dehumidifiers, which are presumably (?) powered by a circuit that reverses polarity as if air conditioners are using to cool or heat? There are plenty of these units about, using a rect
