(File photo) NEW DELHI: The Congress on Tuesday demanded that Priyanka Gandhi Vadra needs to be called from Ghaziabad to hear a 'heartbreaking' personal plea for protection from a rape survivor who was allegedly abducted and set on fire by the alleged rapists to escape honour killings. Ajay Mishra, 35, was arrested on the charges of gangrape and murder on October 22. The rape survivor, who was rescued and rushed to a hospital after being set on fire, along with the two girls of her family on Monday, told the police that the accused had abducted her and raped her on October 13. In a series of tweets, senior Congress leader Priyanka Gandhi Vadra demanded that the Congress-affiliated National Students Union of India (NSUI) be forced to distance itself from the actions of its leader in order to save the life of the woman. She said that the rape survivor should be called from Ghaziabad and asked for protection. Calling the alleged gangrape and murder "shocking" and "heartbreaking", Priyanka Gandhi Vadra demanded that the youth wing of the party ensure the accuser is safe and lodged in police protection. "Shocking and heart-breaking news today. I urge the alleged rapists to be brought to justice as soon as possible. The law is the only way to right the wrong," she
